FESTIVAL WEEK 1 Fri, 01.08.2014 - Wed, 06.08.2014

Fri, 01.08.2014 | Import Projects

Vibration/Frequency/Substance | 20:00 -
Keithstraße 10 | 10787 Berlin - Charlottenburg

To kick off the beginning of the Project Space Festival Berlin, Import Projects presents a screening of Austrian artist Ursula Mayer's "Gonda" (2012), a recent landmark in contemporary film art, scripted by Maria Fusco and shot partly on a smoking volcano. This will be followed by a conversation between the artist and Nadim Samman. Topics to be discussed include the artist's distinctive approach of narrative structure and the 'queer audience'.

Sat, 02.08.2014 | Agora

'Stravaganza | 14:00 - 20:00
Mittelweg 50 | 12053 Berlin - Neukölln

A festival within a festival- that's what Agora has in store for the second day of the Project Space Festival. Between 14:00 - 20:00, 'Stravaganza, a performance installation stretching out onto the garden and facade outside the building, will critically examine the topic of celebrations and their symbologies. Participating artists are Beth Dillon, Tomás Espinosa, Renata Har and Caique Tizzi.

Sun, 03.08.2014 | tête

Hors d'œuvre - The Secondary Concern | 15:00 - 23:00
Schönhauser Allee 161A | 10435 Berlin - Prenzlauer Berg

From 15:00 - 23:00 on Sunday, the third of August, everything in tête will revolve around food. "Hors d'œuvre - The Secondary Concern" invites its guests to bring their own hors d'œuvres and to taste the creations of other visitors. In addition to the hors d'œuvres from participating artists, videos - likewise revolving around food, will be projected.

Mon, 04.08.2014 | uqbar

Living Resorts | 19:00 - 21:00

Schwedenstraße 16 | 13357 Berlin - Wedding

A performative lecture by Eva Kietzmann and Petra Kübert related to their current sound installation „Living Resorts“. The artists give insight into the way they work and tell how they became aware of the goldenrod, a plant growing a lot on waste land, and how they got the idea to bring this plant into an exhibition space. The lecture will be followed by a planting action: goldenrods, originating from waste land threatened by privatization, will be retransferred to the public space. Eva Kietzmann and Petra Kübert work as a duo since 2009, and deal with the aesthetic impact of the privatisation of urban space.

Tue, 05.08.2014 | Grimmuseum

Preview Tableau Vivant | 19.00 -

Fichtestraße 2 | 10967 Berlin - Kreuzberg

With the promising title "Preview Tableau Vivant", Grimmuseum invites guests to an extraordinary evening on Tuesday, August 5th, from 19:00 onwards. Mike Hentz, along with Iwanka Skrivanek, Kai Degner, Valerija Pintschuk and special guests, present poetic drawings including performance, dance, images, installation, and music!

Wed, 06.08.2014 | Kinderhook & Caracas

Santopalato | 18:00 - 21:00

Kreuzbergstraße 42e | 10965 Berlin - Kreuzberg

SANTOPALATO is a one-day exhibition at Kinderhook & Caracas. From 18:00 - 21:00 Søren Aagaard (DK) will present new and recent works accompanied by a suitable tasting menu. Aagaard is a multi-disciplinary artist working from a variety of perspectives, whose work is often influenced by his background as a chef. As such, food is one of the varied mediums he employs to examine how genres, labels, etiquette, codes and social conventions function to construct meaning within visual art, film language and everyday phenomena. Organized by Anna Frost.

FESTIVAL WEEK 2 Thu, 07.08.2014 - Wed, 13.08.2014Thu, 07.08.2014 | LEAP

LMSTFU/Let Me Search That For You | 19:00 -

Leipziger Straße 63 | 10117 Berlin - Mitte

LEAP, VERBALVISUAL & Teresa Dillon present an Internet Search Battle. LMSTFU (Let Me Search That For You), is an internet search battle to discover who has the skills, speed and wit to become the world's first ever internet search champion. Searchers will be given queries to which they must find the answers using their search engine of choice within a predetermined time frame. Search query challenges include LOL chats, Yelp reviews, and everyone's favorite, Yahoo Answers. Featuring Kim Asendorf, Mirelle Borra, Lily Chang, Ole Fach, Stephen Hennelly, Peter Lang, John McKiernan, Anna Rose, Samim Winiger, Adele Schwab, and Abigail Smith. The event will be accompanied by a BBQ as well as Music by Nadav.

Fri, 08.08.2014 | Kleine Humboldt Galerie

raumbestandserhebung | 12:00 - 20:00

Albrecht-Daniel-Thaer-Institut für Agrar- und Gartenbauwissenschaften Humboldt Universität zu Berlin |
Invalidenstraße 42 | 10115 Berlin - Mitte

On Friday, August 8th, 2014, the Kleine Humboldt Galerie invites visitors to the exhibition "raumbestandserhebung" at the Albrecht-Daniel-Thaer-Institute for Agricultural and Horticultural Sciences. The presented artworks deal with the historic architecture of the Berlin Agricultural College that was erected between 1883 and 1909. From 12:00 to 19:00, the exhibition will be accessible via hourly tours, starting in the foyer of Invalidenstraße 42.

Sat, 09.08.2014 | Lage Egal

Ewig im Werden, nie vollendet | 16:00 & 20:00

Danziger Straße 145 | 10407 Berlin - Prenzlauer Berg

The work "Ewig im Werden, nie vollendet" by the artist Daniela Gugg is a reinterpretation of the last and unfinished work for the viola instrument, composed by the Hungarian Béla Bartók (* 1881, † 1945). The handwritten manuscript is a challenge and requires an unconventional reading. The concert will be performed at 8 pm by violist Bernadett Kis with accompaniment.

Sun, 10.08.2014 | OZEAN

OZEAN SPIELT | 12:00 - 24:00

Schleiermacherstraße 31 | 10961 Berlin - Kreuzberg

OZEAN is a project space in a garage with a semi-public character. "OZEAN SPIELT" is inspired by the film, "The Legend of 1900". A baby boy, discovered in 1900 on an ocean liner, grows into a musical prodigy, never setting foot on land. Please come by and enjoy this ongoing performance at OZEAN.

Mon, 11.08.2014 | Archive Kabinett

Beirutopia | 19:00 -

Dieffenbachstraße 31 | 10967 Berlin - Kreuzberg

As part of her ongoing research and residency at Archive Kabinett, Caitlin Berrigan invites Randa Mirza to discuss her photographic series, "Beirutopia". The two artists share a commitment to creating work that revolves around questions of art and feminism within public space, geopolitics, fictions, and speculative futures.

Tue, 12.08.2014 | Centrum

The Interval | 20:00 -

Reuterstraße 7-8 | 12053 Berlin - Neukölln

At 20:00, Centrum invited guests to the premiere of the Super8 film, "The Interval", by Úna Quigley. The visual script was informed by an excerpt from Iris Murdoch's 1978 novel, "The Sea the Sea", in which the protagonist's equilibrium is disrupted by an unbearable vision in the sea. He describes the interval of time needed to process his vision and questions the possibility of his eyes projecting images onto reality. This work was grant-aided by Ealain and Gaeltachta Teo.

Mon, 18.08.2014 | Apartment Project

Lokanta | 19:00 -

Hertzbergstraße 13 | 10255 Berlin - Neukölln

Apartment Project will contribute to the Project Space Festival with "Lokanta", a performance and dinner discussing mobility. "Lokanta" is the name of a type of traditional restaurant in Turkey, which is usually located on the roads welcoming travelers, truck drivers, busses and cars. On Monday, August 18th at 19.00, questions such as, 'What exactly is mobility? How does an artist experience it? When does one feel stuck?' will be discussed with invited artists and visitors.

Tue, 19.08.2014 | die raum

Lembrança de Brasilia - Translations | 20:00 -

Oderberger Straße 56 | 10435 Berlin - Prenzlauer Berg

Only 5 sq.m. ² available: Laearcio Redondo takes up this challenge on Tuesday, August 19th as he speaks about his project, "Lembrança de Brasilia" (Memory from Brasilia). Based on the historical work of Brazilian artist Athos Bulcão, the work reflects upon an important artist in Brazil's recent history and discusses modernist architecture and its utopias as a means of transforming Brazilian society.

Wed, 20.08.2014 | NuN

Inside Out, Upside Down | 19:00 - 22:00

Isarstraße 4 | 12053 Berlin - Neukölln

To experience NuN, visitors must climb a ladder and enter the exhibition space through a window. For the Project Space Festival, Brad Downey will empty the exhibition space with a minimal, yet time-consuming installation, while Jesüs invites friends and disciples for his Last Supper, a veggie BBQ on the sidewalk.

FESTIVAL WEEK 4 Thu, 21.08.2014 - Wed, 27.08.2014Thu, 21.08.2014 | Espace Surplus

Letting Grow | 11:00 - 23:00

Wallstraße 85 | 10179 Berlin - Mitte

Along with Lucia Kempkes and Jessica Prescott, Espace Surplus presents a feast for the senses in the breathtaking space of 'Between You and Me'. Endless drawings overwhelm the eyes, plants and herbs take over and bewitch with their flavor, leaves rustle, freshly baked delicacies perfume the space, delicious fresh herbal teas and freshly chopped salads await to be tasted and touched - and in the end even the sixth sense is inspired and fulfilled.

Sun, 24.08.2014 | General Public

Exil: work in progress

Location and time will be revealed one week before the event

With the title "Exile: work in progress", General Public describes a typical challenge faced by most project rooms: the frequent spatial uncertainty. Due to renovations at the curator's home on Schönhauser Alle 167c, General Public is currently 'homeless' and will make this their topic of discussion on Sunday, August 24th for the Project Space Festival. We're excited to know where we'll ultimately end up?

Mon, 25.08.2014 | Autocenter

Look into your bowl of soup | 19:00 - 23:00

Leipziger Straße 56 | 10117 Berlin - Mitte

Beginning at 19:00 on Monday, August 25th, Autocenter will be showing works by Mark Strömich with the theme "Look into your bowl of soup." What can we expect to see? According to the artist of all things liquid, anything from sausages to perfection and the cosmos.

Terms of Narration | 20:00 -

Friedrich-von-Raumer-Bibliothek | Dudenstr. 18-20 | 10965 Berlin – Kreuzberg

Secondary Narratives combines four exhibitions within one format and links the work of independent project spaces and curators. Each of the exhibitions are both autonomous and part of a larger narrative. Under the heading "Terms of Narration," Secondary Narratives hosts a lecture on Thursday, August 28 at 20:00, at the Friedrich-von-Raumer-Library in Kreuzberg: "A lecture inspired by Secondary Narratives; Secondary Narratives interpreted in a lecture. An attempt to make sense of four exhibitions without having seen them; a narrative that happens to coincide with four exhibitions."

Fri, 29.08.2014 | District

Avantgarde of Almost Complete Blindness | 18:00 – 23:00

Bessemerstraße 2 – 14 | 12103 Berlin – Tempelhof

In celebration of the Project Space Festival, District will introduce Laura McLardy's ArtAndArchitecture-Installation, "Line of Least Resistance", at 18:00 and invites guests to an extensive performance, music and video program. From 20:00, the interdisciplinary happening curated by the artist collective Boring Drug from Krakow, „Avantgarde of Almost Complete Blindness“, will be experienced as a spiritual séance with experimental music. At 22:00, the District grant recipient Zorka Wollny will show her most recent video work, which has been produced in collaboration with Małgorzata Mazur. The current exhibition, "DIRECT APPROACH" by Stine Marie Jacobsen, will be open throughout the program.

Sat, 30.08.2014 | Berlin-Weekly

WE NEVER PROMISED OURSELVES A SYMPHONY | 13.00 - 23.00

Linienstraße 160 | 10115 Berlin – Mitte

With "WE NEVER PROMISED OURSELVES A SYMPHONY" by Leon Eixenberger, Berlin-Weekly will conclude the Project Space Festival on Saturday, the 30th of August from 13:00 to 23:00. The interactive installation that both visually and acoustically connects the interior with the exterior space underlines the projects space's intention to exhibit works created for the high window space conceived also as public art.
